~~003.15A~~ Wet pavement, light drizzle, or wind less than 25 miles per hour is not considered inclement weather for purposes of permit movements. If adverse weather or road conditions are encountered during operation, the permitted vehicle must proceed to the next available safe place off the roadway and park until conditions improve. Nebraska State Patrol Officers or local law enforcement officers or the Department's personnel may further restrict or prohibit operation of permitted vehicles during periods when, in their judgment, weather or other hazardous conditions make continued operation unsafe.

011 PROVISIONS APPLICABLE TO CONDITIONAL INTERSTATE USE PERMITS FOR DIVISIBLE LOADS EXCEEDING 80,000 POUNDS

~~011.01~~ The Director has determined that circumstances exist to make the issuance of Conditional Interstate Use Permits for divisible loads exceeding 80,000 pounds on the National System of Interstate and Defense Highways (Interstate) within the State of Nebraska necessary. The Interstate provides the safest, efficient, least congested direct route for movement of such loads across the state. In making such determination, the Director has considered the following conditions on the Interstate System:

~~001.01A~~ The Interstate is designed and maintained to standards to be more conducive to safe and efficient transportation than alternative state and county roads.

~~011.01B~~ The Interstate is designed to handle traffic volumes that are more conducive to safe and efficient transportation than alternative state and county roads.

~~011.01C~~ Public safety is enhanced by authorizing vehicles with a total gross weight of up to 95,000 pounds to travel on the Interstate in Nebraska.

~~011.02~~ CONDITIONAL INTERSTATE USE PERMIT A Conditional Interstate Use Permit may be issued by the Department or its agent for vehicles weighing up to 95,000 pounds on the Interstate System. In no case will vehicles be permitted to exceed 20,000 pounds on a single axle, or more than 34,000 pounds on a group of two consecutive axles. The overall gross weight of a group of two or more consecutive axles must conform to the requirements of the bridge formula set out in Neb. Rev. Stat. 60-6,294.

~~011.02A~~ Dummy axles shall be disregarded in determining the lawful weight of a vehicle or vehicle combination for operation on the Nebraska Highway System. ~~011.03 LICENSING AND REGISTRATION REQUIREMENTS The permit will only be issued to vehicles that are properly licensed to operate with such loads in Nebraska, or to vehicles with registration apportioned pursuant to Nebraska law. The granting of the permit shall not constitute a waiver of any license requirement imposed by the State of Nebraska.~~

~~011.04 TERM OF PERMIT The permit may be purchased in 10-day increments up to a maximum period covering 90 consecutive days.~~

~~011.05 LIMITATION OF TRAVEL The permit shall be issued for travel on the Interstate System in Nebraska. The granting of the permit shall not be construed as waiving any weight limits that have been, or may be imposed, on any non-interstate highway or bridge, or on any posted Interstate bridge.~~

~~011.06 REVOCATION All permits and all privileges accruing from said permits may, at any time, be revoked. If revoked, the vehicle operator shall surrender possession of the permit. The permit may be revoked pursuant to the following:~~

~~011.07 ENFORCEMENT TOLERANCES No enforcement tolerances will be allowed on the gross weight set out on the permit, or axle weight set out in Section 011.02 of these Rules and Regulations.~~

~~011.08 PERMIT TRANSFER, POSSESSION AND INSPECTION The permit is not transferable to any other vehicle. In the case of a vehicle combination, the permit will be issued to the motor vehicle, and will not be transferable to other motor vehicles owned or operated by the permittee. All permits shall be carried in the vehicle to which they refer and shall be open to inspection by any law enforcement officer or authorized agent of the Department.~~
