On August 25, 2000, RE/MAX Executives, Inc. (Complainant) of Kearney, Nebraska, filed a formal complaint against Nebraska Telephone & Technology Telecommunications, Inc. (Defendant) of Lincoln, Nebraska, concerning various billing disputes.

On September 1, 2000, defendant filed with the Commission a statement of satisfaction. Soon thereafter, on September 13, 2000, a statement of acceptance was filed by the complainant. On October 10, 2000 a motion to dismiss the formal complaint was filed by Nebraska Telephone & Technology Telecommunications, Inc.

In support of its motion, defendant cites the complainant's acceptance of the terms of the Defendant's statement of satisfaction. Pursuant to Rule 005.08A of the Rules of Commission Procedure, acceptance of a statement of satisfaction enables defendant to move for dismissal of the formal complaint. In light of the resolution of the dispute by the parties, the Commission finds that the complaint should be dismissed.

O R D E R

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED by the Nebraska Public Service Commission that Formal Complaint No. 1283 be, and it is hereby, dismissed.
