BY THE COMMISSION:

O P I N I O N A N D F I N D I N G S

On September 20, 2000, Marie Gregoire (Complainant) of Murdock, Nebraska, filed a formal complaint against ALLTEL Communications (Defendant) of Lincoln, alleging that the defendant charged the complainant an excessive amount for construction of an additional business line to the complainant's residence.

On October 11, 2000, the defendant filed with the Commission, its answer to the formal complaint and moved for dismissal of the complaint. In support of its motion, the defendant cites an agreement negotiated by the parties resolving the dispute. The complainant confirmed acceptance of this agreement in a letter to the Commission dated October 20, 2000. Pursuant to Rule 005.08A of the Rules of Commission Procedure, acceptance of a Statement of Satisfaction enables the defendant to move for dismissal of the formal complaint. In light of the resolution of the dispute by the parties, the Commission finds that the complaint should be dismissed.

O R D E R

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED by the Nebraska Public Service Commission that Formal Complaint No. 1285 be, and it is hereby, dismissed.
