By application filed September 10, 1996, CFW Communications Services, Inc., of Waynesboro, Virginia, seeks authority to provide intraLATA and interLATA resold telecommunications services within the state of Nebraska. Notice of the application was published in the Daily Record, Omaha, Nebraska, on September 11, 1996, pursuant to the rules of the Commission. No protests were filed. Hearing on the application was held by video communication on November 12, 1996.

Applicant produced one witness, John J. Hickey, who testified: Exhibit 1 is his pre-filed testimony. Applicant's principal product is a debit card. It is merchandized through independent telephone companies in Nebraska. Exhibit 2 shows its advertizing materials. Exhibit 3 is a revised consolidated balance sheet for 1996. Exhibit 4 shows a map of the states in which applicant has regulatory approval. No state has denied it certification. Applicant's cards offer customers the ability to pay for long distance service in advance and limits fraud, all at competitive rates.

Interexchange reseller applications are subject to Commission jurisdiction under Neb. Rev. Stat. 75-604 and 86-805 and Title 291 of the Commission's Rules and Regulations, Chapter 5, Rule 003.12. From examination of the application filed herein and the testimony adduced at the hearing, the Commission finds applicant has provided all the information required by the Commission; possesses adequate financial resources to provide the proposed service, and possesses adequate technical competency to provide the proposed service. The application should be granted.
