BY THE COMMISSION:

The Commission enters this order nunc pro tunc to correct the order previously issued in C-1415 on December 1, 1998. In that order, under Paragraph number 6, the Commission allowed interested parties to submit post-hearing briefs or comments by 5:00 p.m. on January 22, 1998. The date those briefs or comments are due by should have read: "January 22, 1999".

The purpose of an order nunc pro tunc is to correct the record which has been made so that it will truly record the action taken which, through inadvertence or mistake, was not truly recorded. Interstate Printing Co. v. Dept. of Revenue, 236 Neb. 110, 459 N.W.2d 519 (1990). Clerical errors may be corrected by an order nunc pro tunc, but not judicial errors. Larson v. Bedke, 211 Neb. 247, 318 N.W.2d 253 (1982).

The order entered by the Commission on December 1, 1998, inadvertently lists the wrong date by which post-hearing briefs and/or comments are due.

After examining the record and being fully advised, the Commission finds that Paragraph 6 of the December 1, 1998, order in this docket contains an error that is inconsistent with the Opinion, Findings, and Order of the Commission. Therefore, the Commission should issue an order nunc pro tunc to correct the original order.
