BY THE COMMISSION:

On October 13, 1998, ACC National Long Distance Corp. (Applicant), Rochester, New York, filed an application seeking authority to start using Vista International Communications as its trade name in the state of Nebraska. Notice of the application was published in The Daily Record, Omaha, Nebraska, on September 4, 1998. Since no protests were filed, we process this application pursuant to the Commission's Rule of Modified Procedure.

O P I N I O N A N D F I N D I N G S

Applicant received authority to operate as a resale carrier of intrastate interexchange intraLATA and interLATA telecommunications services within the state of Nebraska, under the name ACC National Long Distance Corp., (hereinafter, ACC) Rochester, New York, from this Commission on February 13, 1995, pursuant to Application No. C-1123. No formal or departmental complaints are pending against applicant.

Applicant requests authority to commence using the trade name "Vista International Communications". A revised tariff has been submitted to the Commission with an issue date of October 13, 1998, and an effective date of October 23, 1998. This tariff identifies the services that will be marketed under the Vista trade name. Vista is a dial-around product that will be billed by the local exchange carrier. The service will be provided and billed to Nebraska customers under the ACC name. There will be no change in the ownership or corporate structure of the company. Applicant has obtained authority from the Nebraska Secretary of State to use the trade name Vista in the state of Nebraska.

Upon consideration of the application, the governing statutes and rules, and being fully informed, the Commission is of the opinion and finds the application should be granted.
