In the Matter of the joint appli- ) Application No. C-1939 cation of Frontier Corporation, ) Allnet Communications Services, ) and Frontier Communications ) ORDER NUNC PRO TUNC International, Inc. of Rochester, )
New York, seeking authority to re- ) organize and related transactions. ) Entered: March 16, 1999

BY THE COMMISSION:

O P I N I O N   A N D   F I N D I N G S

On November 12, 1998, Frontier Corporation, Allnet Communications, and Frontier Communications International, Inc. jointly filed an application seeking authority to reorganize and for related activities. Notice of the application was published in The Daily Record, Omaha, Nebraska, on November 13, 1998. On January 13, 1999, in Application No. C-1939, the Commission entered an order granting the application. After issuing its order, the Commission discovered a typographical error in the second paragraph of the Commission's Opinion and Findings portion of the January 13, 1999, order. The order inadvertently stated that "FCA" was acquired by Frontier, rather than "FCS."

The purpose of an order nunc pro tunc is to correct the record which has been made so that it will truly record the action taken which, through inadvertence or mistake, was not truly recorded. Interstate Printing Co. v. Dept. of Revenue, 236 Neb. 110, 459 N.W.2d 519 (1990). Clerical errors may be corrected by an order nunc pro tunc, but not judicial errors. Larson v. Bedke, 211 Neb. 247, 318 N.W.2d 253 (1982).

After examining the record and being fully advised, the Commission finds that the second paragraph of the Opinion and Findings portion of the January 13, 1999, order in Application No. C-1939 contains a typographical error that is inconsistent with the Opinion, Findings, and Order of the Commission. Therefore, the Commission should issue an order nunc pro tunc to correct the original order.

O R D E R

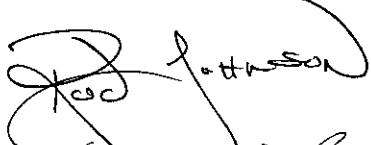

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED by the Nebraska Public Service Commission that the second paragraph of the Opinion and Findings portion of the Commission's January 13, 1999, order in Application No. C-1939 be, and is corrected hereby, to reflect that FCS was acquired by Frontier, and not FCA.
