On July 22, 2003, an application was filed by Qwest Corporation (Qwest) of Denver, Colorado, seeking approval of an Internet Access Services Amendment to an interconnection agreement, previously approved in Application No. C-2626 with Airwave Wireless Communications (Airwave) of Scottsbluff, Nebraska. Notice of the application was published in The Daily Record, Omaha, Nebraska, on July 24, 2003. No protests were filed; therefore, this application is processed pursuant to the Commission's Rule of Modified Procedure.

Pursuant to Section 252(i) of the Telecommunications Act of 1996 (the Act), Qwest and Airwave entered into an interconnection agreement, which was approved by the Commission on December 18, 2001, in Application No. C-2626. In the current application, Qwest and Airwave seek to amend the original agreement by adding terms and conditions for Internet Access Services.

The amendment does not discriminate against any telecommunications carrier. Furthermore, the implementation of the amendment is consistent with the public interest, convenience and necessity.

Section 252(e) of the Act requires this Commission to review negotiated interconnection agreements to ensure they comply with Sections 251 and 252(d) of the Act, as well as all applicable state laws. Using those standards, the amendment filed July 22, 2003, should be approved.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED by the Nebraska Public Service Commission that the amendment to the interconnection agreement between Qwest Corporation and Airwave Wireless Communications, be, and it is hereby, approved.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the executed amendment filed herein be, and it is hereby, made the official copy on file with the Nebraska Public Service Commission.
