BEFORE THE COMMISSION:

On December 17, 2003, an application was filed by Clarks Telecommunications Co. (Clarks) of Clarks, Nebraska, seeking approval of a wireless interconnection and reciprocal compensation agreement with WWC License, L.L.C. (Western), of Bellevue, Washington. Notice of the application was published in The Daily Record, Omaha, Nebraska, on December 19, 2003. No protests were filed; therefore, this application is processed pursuant to the Commission's rule of modified procedure.

Pursuant to Section 252(a) of the Telecommunications Act of 1996 (the Act), Clarks and Western entered into a wireless interconnection and reciprocal compensation agreement arrived at through voluntary negotiations. An executed copy of this agreement is contained within the application.

Neither the agreement nor any portion thereof discriminates against any telecommunications carrier. Furthermore, the implementation of the agreement is consistent with the public interest, convenience and necessity.

Section 252(e) of the Act requires this Commission to review interconnection agreements adopted by negotiation or arbitration to ensure they comply with Sections 251 and 252(d) of the Act, as well as, all applicable state laws. Using those standards, the wireless interconnection and reciprocal compensation agreement filed December 17, 2003, should be approved.

O R D E R

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED by the Nebraska Public Service Commission that the wireless interconnection and reciprocal compensation agreement between Clarks Telecommunications Co. and WWC License, L.L.C., be, and it is hereby, approved.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the executed interconnection agreement filed herein be, and it is hereby, made the official copy on file with the Nebraska Public Service Commission.

MADE AND ENTERED at Lincoln, Nebraska, this 21st day of January, 2004.
