Interconnection Rates, Terms,)
Conditions, and Related) HEARING OFFICER ORDER
Arrangements with AT&T)
Communications of the Midwest,)
Inc., and TCG Omaha, Denver,) Entered: June 25, 2004 Colorado.)

BY THE COMMISSION:

On June 14, 2004, the Arbitrated Interconnection Agreement ("Agreement") entered between AT&T Communications of the Midwest, TCG Omaha (Collectively "AT&T") and Qwest Corporation ("Qwest") was filed pursuant to the Commission's Mediation and Arbitration Policy established in Application No. C-1128, Progression Order No. 3.

As Hearing Officer in the above-captioned docket, I hereby find that the hearing currently set for July 7, 2004, shall be conducted as an oral argument, with no witnesses or further evidence presented. The parties shall be permitted twenty minutes each to present their argument. The argument will be transcribed.

Due to the limited time available for the Commission's decision, I further encourage the parties to secure the services of an outside court reporter and to share the costs of the court reporter so that a transcript may be available to all in a timely fashion.

A telephone bridge has been established to allow parties to participate telephonically at 402-472-6290.

Furthermore, the parties shall submit proposed orders to the Commission within 14 days of the oral argument or 10 days of the completion of the transcript, whichever is shorter.

O R D E R

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED by the Hearing Officer that the hearing scheduled July 7, 2004, at 1:30 p.m. shall be changed to an oral argument and the parties are encouraged to arrange for and share the costs of an outside court reporter.

Application No. C-3095
