BY THE COMMISSION:

By application filed February 24, 2004, I-Link Communications, Inc. (I-Link) of Phoenix, Arizona, seeks to voluntarily withdraw its authority to operate as a resale common carrier of telecommunications services in the State of Nebraska, previously granted in Applications No. C-1463 and C-1621. Notice of the application was published in The Daily Record, Omaha, Nebraska, on February 26, 2004. O P I N I O N A N D F I N D I N G S

I-Link was authorized by this Commission to operate as a resale common carrier of telecommunications Services in the State of Nebraska on May 6, 1997, pursuant to Application No. C-1463. On October 15, 1997, the Commission authorized a change of name to their current name, I-Link, pursuant to C-1621.

By letter dated February 20, 2004, I-Link requested that its authority to operate as a resale common carrier of telecommunications services be withdrawn and its certificate canceled. I-Link no longer intends to provide telecommunication services and has no current customers in Nebraska. Thus the discontinuance of its certification would have no adverse impact upon consumers.

Upon consideration of the request and being fully advised, the Commission finds the request to be reasonable and finds that I-Link may voluntarily withdraw its authority to operate as a resale common carrier of telecommunications services in Nebraska granted in Applications No. C-1463 and C-1621.

O R D E R

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED by the Nebraska Public Service Commission that Application No. C-3130 be, and it is hereby, granted and the certificate and authority to operate as a resale common carrier granted to I-Link Communications, Inc., is withdrawn.

MADE AND ENTERED at Lincoln, Nebraska, this 30th day of March 2004.
