On May 1, 2006 the Nebraska Public Service Commission (Commission) received an application from Scott and Laci Dinkler of Bladen, seeking authority to receive telephone service from Glenwood Telephone Company (Glenwood). The Dinklers reside within the Red Cloud exchange and receive telephone service from the Great Plains Telephone Company (Great Plains).

Great Plains notified the Commission on May 30, 2006, that it did not support the proposed boundary change and denied the request for voluntary relinquishment of the Dinklers from its service area. On July 3, 2006, the Dinklers notified the Commission of their desire to withdraw the pending application at this time and consider alternative actions. Therefore, the Commission enters this order dismissing the application.
