BY THE COMMISSION:

O P I N I O N A N D F I N D I N G S

On August 7, 2018, the Commission entered an order adopting a revised contribution mechanism. On September 27, 2018, the Commission held an implementation workshop. At the workshop, the staff indicated that it was in the process of contracting with a third party contractor to improve the online remittance filing process. While discussions with its third party contractor had been ongoing, the Commission staff and the third party contractor were able to reach agreement on the improved online remittance filing process, which the Commission formally approved on November 19, 2018.

At this point, the Commission finds the January 1, 2019 implementation deadline described in the August 7, 2018 Order should be extended to April 1, 2019 to give the Commission's third party contractor sufficient time to complete and test the online remittance filing system.

O R D E R

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED by the Nebraska Public Service Commission that the implementation date be extended from January 1, 2019 to April 1, 2019.

ENTERED AND MADE EFFECTIVE at Lincoln, Nebraska, this 27th day of November, 2018.
