BY THE HEARING OFFICER:

Applicants Happy Cab Company d/b/a Happy Cab Co., Happy Cab Company d/b/a Checker Cab Co., Happy Cab Company d/b/a Yellow Cab Co., DonMark, Inc., d/b/a Cornhusker Cab Co., and Valor Transportation Company d/b/a Safeway Cab, in the above-captioned matter, filed with the Commission a Motion to Compel on certain discovery requests on March 28, 2012. In the Motion, the Applicant alleges that its First Set of Interrogatories and Requests for Production of Documents were served upon the Protestant, Servant Cab Company d/b/a Yellow Cab Company and Checker Cab Company, on or about February 22, 2012. The Applicant received Protestant's Answers to Applicants' Interrogatories (First Set) and Protestant's Responses to Applicants' Requests for Production of Documents (First Set), in which the Protestant objected to Applicants' Interrogatories Nos. 11 and 15 and Applicants' Request for Production Nos. 9 and 11.

Counsel for the Applicants and the counsel for the Protestant discussed these issues but were unable to resolve the outstanding issues. The Protestant refuses to answer the Interrogatories and Requests on the grounds that they seek proprietary confidential information as well as the relevancy of the requests.

Oral arguments on the pending Motion to Compel were held on March 29, 2012. Present at the oral argument were Commissioner Rod Johnson, Hearing Officer; Andy Pollock, attorney for the Applicants; Jack Shultz, attorney for Servant Cab Company; and Mark Breiner. Protestant High Plains Cab Company was notified of the oral argument but declined to participate. The data requests at issue are Applicants' Interrogatories Nos. 11 and 15 and Applicants' Request for Production Nos. 9 and 11. Some of the data requests are related in subject matter and were discussed together; therefore, those same data requests will be discussed together in this order.

OPINION

Use of discovery in proceedings before the Commission is governed by the rules and regulations of the Nebraska Supreme Court. NEB. ADMIN. R. & REGS. Title 291, Chapter 1, Rule 016.11. Generally, "Parties may obtain discovery regarding any matter, not privileged, which is relevant to the subject matter involved in the pending action" and "appears reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence."¹

The Applicant is requesting information and documentation related to information regarding the total revenues (Interrogatory No. 11, Request No. 9) and the total business expenses for the Protestant (Interrogatory No. 15, request No. 11). The Applicants are seeking this information in relation to the consideration of rates that the Commission will be addressing in a related rate application. The Protestant objected on the grounds that the information sought by the Applicants is proprietary, confidential business information and is irrelevant to these proceedings.

The Hearing Officer finds that requested information is not relevant to the issues in this proceeding. The Protestant's financial fitness is not at issue, and the information requested is not material or relevant to any proposed rates that the Applicants' have applied for.

The Hearing Officer finds that the Motion to Compel on Interrogatories Nos. 11 and 15, and Requests for Production Nos. 9 and 11 should be denied.

ORDER

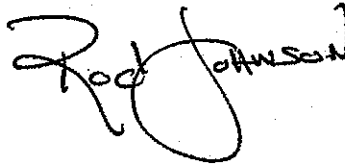

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED by the Hearing Officer in the above-captioned matter that Protestant's Motion to Compel Responses to Discovery is denied.
