On April 28, 2011, an application was filed with the Nebraska Public Service Commission by Kerry Meyer of Aurora, Nebraska, seeking authority as a common carrier in Nebraska intrastate commerce.

The Commission entered an Order To Show Cause on July 26, 2011, citing a failure to prosecute the application in a timely manner.

After being duly advised in the premises, I find that the Director's request for a continuance of the hearing in the above-captioned matter should be granted and the hearing rescheduled to a date later to be determined.
