BY THE HEARING OFFICER:

This matter comes before me on the Applicant's Motion to Strike filed on May 21, 2015. The Motion to Strike requested that paragraphs 3 and 4 should be stricken from the submission of a letter/brief by the Protestant Transport Plus. The Motion states that paragraphs 3 and 4 reference alleged facts that occurred after the closing of the record in this proceeding and that are not part of the record.

After being duly advised in the premises, the Hearing Officer finds that the Motion to Strike should be granted. The Hearing Officer finds that Paragraphs 3 and 4 should be stricken from the letter filed by the Protestant Transport Plus. Paragraphs 3 and 4 should not be considered by the Commission in its deliberations in this proceeding.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED by the Hearing Officer in the above-captioned matter that the Motion to Strike is granted.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that paragraphs 3 and 4 are hereby stricken from the letter filed by the Protestant, Transport Plus. Paragraphs 3 and 4 shall not be considered by the Commission in the deliberations in this proceeding.
