In order for the Commission to approve an application on an emergency basis, the Commission must find that an emergency situation exists. In this application, there has not been enough evidence submitted to the Commission for it to find an emergency situation exists that necessitates the granting of the application on an emergency basis. The Commission finds that the Applicant should provide more evidence the Commission before any action may be taken on the application. We therefore find that the application should be denied on an emergency basis.

Upon consideration of the application and being fully advised in the premises, the Commission is of the opinion and finds that the application should be denied on an emergency basis and that said matter be processed in accordance with the Commission's regular procedures and Section 75-119. R.R.S. 2003, as amended.
