

NEBRASKA ADMINISTRATIVE CODE

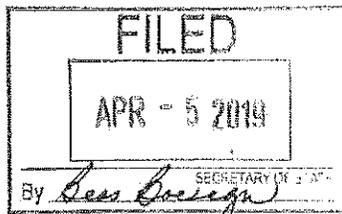

TITLE 227 - DEPARTMENT OF LABOR
CHAPTER 4 - LICENSING REQUIREMENTS

001. This chapter is adopted pursuant to Neb. Rev. Stat. §§48-1706, 48-1708 and 48-1710.
002. To be eligible for a license, an applicant therefore must:
- A. Be of good character, competence and reliability;
 - B. Be a person who has not, within the preceding three years, had a Nebraska farm labor contractor's license application denied;
 - C. Be a person who has not, within the preceding three years, in Nebraska or in any other jurisdiction, had a farm labor contractor's license, permit or certificate denied, revoked or suspended;
 - D. Not have persons financially interested in any capacity in the applicant's business as a farm labor contractor who were denied a Nebraska farm labor contractor's license, permit or certificate within the preceding three years or who had such license denied, revoked, or suspended within the preceding three years in Nebraska or any other jurisdiction. A refusal to renew a license, permit or certificate because the applicant therefore or any person financially interested in the applicant's business as a farm labor contractor has been denied a license, permit or certificate or had a license, permit or certificate revoked in Nebraska or any other jurisdiction within the preceding three years, is considered the same as the revocation of the license, permit or certificate on the date of its expiration;
 - E. Not have any unsatisfied final judgments of the court or final orders issued by any government agency which require the payment of unpaid wages to employees or the payment of any advances made to the contractor by farmers or owners or lessees of land intended to be used for the production of crops;
 - F.
 - 1. Prior to January 1, 2017 pay a fee of seven hundred and fifty dollars ($750.00);
 - 2. On or after January 1, 2017 pay a fee of two hundred and fifty dollars ($250.00);
