TITLE 270 - NEBRASKA BOARD OF PAROLE

Chapter 6 - Release on Parole and Discharge

001 The chief executive officer of a facility shall reduce the term of a committed offender by six months for each year of the offender's term and pro rata for any part thereof which is less than a year. The total of all such reductions shall be credited from the date of sentence, which shall include any term of confinement prior to sentence and commitment as provided pursuant to section 83-1,106, and shall be deducted:

001.01 From the minimum term, to determine the date of eligibility for release on parole.

001.02 From the maximum term, to determine the date when discharge from the custody of the state becomes mandatory.

002 While the offender is in the custody of the department, reductions of such terms may be forfeited, withheld, and restored by the chief executive officer of the facility with the approval of the director after the offender has been consulted regarding the charges of misconduct.

003 While the offender is in the custody of the board, reductions of such terms may be forfeited, withheld, and restored by the administrator with the approval of the director after the offender has been consulted regarding the charges of misconduct or breach of the conditions of parole. In addition, the board may recommend such forfeitures of good time to the director.

004 Good time or other reductions of sentence granted under the provisions of any law prior to July 15, 1992, may be forfeited, withheld, or restored in accordance with the terms of the Nebraska Treatment and Corrections Act.

005 The Board of Parole may in appropriate cases require a parolee, as a condition of his parole, either at the time of his release on parole or at any time while he remains under parole supervision, to reside in a community guidance center, boarding facility, halfway house, hospital, or other special residence facility, for such period and under such supervision or treatment as the Board may deem appropriate.

006 Parole Good Time:

006.01 The Board shall reduce, for good conduct in conformity with the conditions of parole, a parolee's parole term by two days for each month of such term.

TITLE 270
Chapter 6

006.02 The total of such reductions shall be deducted from the maximum term less the good time granted pursuant to section 83-1,107 to determine the date when discharge from parole becomes mandatory.

006.03 Reductions of the parole terms may be forfeited, withheld, and restored by the board after the parolee has been consulted regarding any charge of misconduct or breach of the conditions of parole.

007 A committed offender while on parole shall remain in the legal custody and control of the Board of Parole. The board may at any time revoke the parole of an offender or recommit him to the custody of the Department of Correctional Services, with or without cause.

008 If, in the opinion of the board a parolee does not require guidance or supervision, the board may dispense with and terminate such supervision.

009 The board shall discharge a parolee from parole when the time served in the custody of the department and the time served on parole equal the maximum term less good time.

010 The department shall discharge a committed offender from the custody of the department when the time served in the facility equals the maximum term less good time.
